

Caregiver series to be presented

WEBB CITY, Mo. — “The Coin’s Other Side,” a six-week DVD series on caregiving, is in the offing.

The first session will be at 6 p.m. Thursday, June 24, at the Mining Days building behind the Praying Hands statue in Webb City. Subsequent sessions will be offered at 6 p.m. each Thursday through July 29.

Hosts for the workshops will be Hospice Compassus, the Area Agency on Aging, Adelmo Family Care, Alzheimer’s Association, Americare, Freeman Geriatric Clinic and Access Home Health.

On Monday, Aug. 12, the sponsors also will offer a dementia care workshop. The program, which is designed for both professional and family caregivers of those with dementia, will be conducted by Mary Sharp and her daughter, Rachel Kail.

Seating is limited, and sponsors are encouraging early reservations.

Details and reservations: Area Agency on Aging, 417-781-7562, ext. 19, or Margie Myers with Hospice Compassus, 417-622-8341.
